

1) Take out peeler

2) peel apple

3) but please remember it is very important that you peel the apple in the correct direction. It is critical that you make sure that you are peeling from the stem to the blossom end of the apple. Failure to peel in the correct direction will result all of the nutrients escaping out the stem!